Alpine Gourmet Prato Borni wins the Swiss Wine List Award 2021

Vinum - the European wine magazine gives the Alpine Gourmet Prato Borni the Swiss Wine List Award 2021. With 5 stars, it is chosen as the winner, category Gourmet with a focus on Valais.

The competition is being carried out successfully for the fifth time by Vinum under the patronage of the Swiss Sommelier Association SVS / SSP Deutschschweiz. A total of 125 wine lists were awarded in the four competition categories (gourmet & stars, fine cuisine, home-style cuisine and design & trendy restaurants) and six special prizes were awarded. All wine lists that have achieved a rating of at least three stars were awarded a certificate. The jury announced that the award-winning Alpine Gourmet Prato Borni wine list is one of the best wine lists in Switzerland.

An evening in the “Alpine Gourmet Prato Borni” is a very special occasion: Sommelier Peter Zimmermann takes his guests on a wine tour to the outstanding cuisine of Chef Heinz Rufibach. Peter Zimmermann tasted every single wine on the menu and personally visited most of the wineries. In the “Heimat” menu, only Swiss wines and cider are served, on request in half glasses or just two selected wines. Around half of all wines on offer, around 250 to 300 items, come from the Valais, because the region is as diverse in a small area as it is ten times larger. He finds the right Valaisan for every dish.
